FRUIT SALAD

ASHOK SAWHNY

ISBN: 978-1-84748-620-2 PAGES: 110 PRICE: £7.99 (US $12.95)

SUBJECT AND SETTING OF BOOK:

Fruit Salad is a most delightful, palate-teasing collection of verse for children and the young at heart. Written by a loving grandfather, these largely humorous poems explore the byways and magical landscapes of childhood, with its toys, mysterious gardens, new things to learn and everyday treats.

Along the way we meet Robin Hood, Tarzan, Father Christmas, fire, rain and snow, a horse called Tiger, a friendly sparrow, and of course our devoted parents... Maybe they'll help us gather together apples, bananas, pears and other fruit from the trees and make a deliciously tasty bowl of... fruit salad!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:

Ashok Sawhny was born in Lahore, Punjab, in 1937. The family moved to New Delhi, India after Partition in 1947. Schooled at Modern School, New Delhi, and graduating in Economics from St Stephen's College, Delhi, he worked with Indian Industry until 1977 and then started his own International Trading Company, Monarch International, of which he is president.

His love for art, literature and the finer side of life finds expression in his first book of poems The Sands of Time and his second, As Time Goes By. He also writes in Urdu language.
